

After the School Bell Rings Staff Workbooks Available “After the School Bell Rings: A Staff Development Toolkit”

“After the School Bell Rings: A Staff Development Toolkit” was designed to assist afterschool program supervisors to provide staff members with a basic understanding of the components of a quality afterschool program. The toolkit contains a training guide, a staff notebook and a DVD with program examples. The toolkit’s modules provide training on the following afterschool program components: Quality Programming, Community and Family Involvement, Research and Evaluation, Financing, Staffing and Training, and Management, Administration and Policy.

Staff Development Resources and Training

If you have completed the After the School Bell Rings: A Staff Development Toolkit training and would like to use the toolkit to train staff, the Center for Schools and Communities can provide staff workbooks free of charge. Contact the Center with your name, organization, address and the number of books you need. In addition, the Center can provide the Staff Development Toolkit training to all current PA 21st Century Community Learning Center grantees; and will also provide training to non-grantee organizations under a fee-for-service contract.

If your organization is interested in receiving on-site training or should you have any questions, feel free to contact Cara Akright, Youth Development Coordinator at 717-763-1661 x 194 or email: cakright@csc.csiu.org.
